2. Un-der the sha-dow of Thy throne
Thy Saints have dwellt se-cure;
Suf-fic-ient is Thine arm a-lone,
And our de-fense is sure.

6. The busy tribes of flesh and blood.
With all their lives and cares,
Are carried downwards by the flood,
And lost in following years.

3. Be-fore the hills in order stood,
Or earth re-ceived her frame,
From ex-er-last-ing Thou art God,
To end-less years the same.

7. Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

4. Thy Word com-mands our flesh to dust,
'Re-turn, ye sons of men.'
All na-tions rose from earth at first,
And turn to earth again.

8. Like flowery fields the nations stand,
Pleased with the morning light;
The flowers beneath the mower's hand
Lie withering ere 'tis night.

5. A thou-sand a-ges in Thy sight
Are like an everlasting gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Be-fore the ris-ing Sun.

9. O. God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our etend home.
