Handel's "Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth" is a setting of Psalm 96. The score is written for a vocal soloist and a keyboard accompaniment. The music is in G major and 4/4 time. The vocal line features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. The keyboard accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The lyrics are in Latin and German, with the German text in parentheses. The score is divided into systems, with the vocal line and keyboard accompaniment staves grouped together. The first system includes the lyrics "be as the fruit - ful vine up - on the walls of thine house, thy child - ren like the". The second system includes the lyrics "o - live branch - es round a - bout thy ta - ble, round a - bout,". The third system includes the lyrics "Oel - baum zuei - gen rund um dei - ne Ta - fel, rund um her,". The fourth system includes the lyrics "round a - bout thy ta.ble. Tafel.". The fifth system includes the lyrics "ad libitum.". The sixth system includes the lyrics "Tempo ad libitum.". The score ends with a double bar line.
