A-bide with me; fast falls the even-tide: the dark-ness deepend; Lord, With Swift to its ebbs out life's lit-tle day; Earth's joys grow dim its glories
I need thy pre-sence every pass-ing hour; What but thy grace can foil the
I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight and tears no

A-maz-ing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me,
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved;
Thou man-y claim-ers, toils and snares I have all avoid; I come, I come,
When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun,

I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.
How pre-cious did that grace a-pppear The hour I first be-lieved!
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first be-gun.
