Some Day It Won't Be Long

2
Some day this mortal life shall cease
It won't be long, it may be soon;
Some day I'll see my Saviour's face,
It won't be long, it may be soon;
Some day I'll leave this vale of tears
Forget the struggles of long years
I'll know no sorrow, pain, nor fears
It won't be long, it may be soon.

3
He's coming back with glory rare,
It won't be long, it may be soon;
We'll rise to meet Him in the air,
It won't be long, it may be soon;
If He should call me this I know
I'm saved and ready now to go,
I'm waiting with my heart a glow;
It won't be long, it may be soon.

4
Then as you travel on life's way,
Thro' waters deep, or billows foam,
You may have Jesus as your stay,
He'll walk in you and lead you home.
O brother, will you let Him in?
He'll save and keep you free from sin
Till heaven's door you enter in;
It won't be long, it may be soon.
