The musical score is for the hymn "There is a Balm in Gilead". It is written for a four-part vocal choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked "Andante". The score consists of two systems of staves. The first system includes the vocal parts and the piano accompaniment. The second system continues the vocal parts and the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "There is a Balm in Gilead, to make the wound-ed soul." The piano accompaniment features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts are arranged in four staves, with the Soprano part at the top and the Bass part at the bottom. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves. The score is marked with "pp" (pianissimo) and "Hum" (humming) for the vocal parts. The piano accompaniment is marked with "pp" (pianissimo) and "Hum" (humming) for the right hand and "pp" (pianissimo) for the left hand. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with notes, rests, and bar lines. The lyrics are written in a simple, sans-serif font. The overall style is that of a traditional hymn tune.
