| 1. Hark, my soul, how everything
Strives to serve our bounteous King;
Each a double tribute pays,
Sings its parts, and then obeys. | 2. Nature's chief and sweetest choir
Him with cheerful notes admire;
Chanting every day their lauds,
While the grove their song applauds. |
| 3. Though their voices lower be,
Streams have too their melody;
Night and day they warbling run,
Never pause, but still sing on. | 4. All the flowers that gild the spring
Hither their still music bring;
If heaven bless them, thankful, they Smell more sweet, and look more
gay. |
| 5. Only we can scarce afford
This short office to our Lord;
We, on whom His bounty flows,
All things gives, and nothing owes. | 6. Wake! for shame, my sluggish heart,
Wake! and gladly sing your part;
Learn of birds, and springs, and
flowers,
How to use thy noblest powers. |
| 7. Call whole nature to your aid;
Since 'twas He whole nature made;
Join in one eternal song,
Who to one God all belong. | |
