English Text

- 1.) To the Paschal Victim, Christians offer a sacrifice of praise.
- 2.) The Lamb has ransomed the sheep; the innocent Christ has reconciled sinners with the Father.
- 3.) Death and Life confronted each other in a prodigious battle; the Prince of Life who died, now brings living.
- 4.) Tell us Mary, what did you see on the way?
- 5.) I saw the Sepulcher of the living Christ; I saw the glory of the Risen One.
- 6.) I saw the angels; his witnesses, the shroud and the garments.
- 7.) Christ my hope, is risen; he will go before his own into Galilee.
- 8.) We know that Christ is truly risen from the dead; O victorious King, have mercy on us.

Brief Instructions

1. ① → The syllable with a short vertical line above the note is to be sung with mild emphasis. (Vertical Episema)
2. * → The text before the asterick is to be sung by either the male or female as a form of introduction before all singers come in.
3. ① → This is called a (quarter bar line) and it is used to separate texts into smaller parts and clauses.
4. ① → The half bar line indicates taking of breath without interrupting the movement of the chant.
5. ② → The Double bar line indicates a conclusive sense of a musical piece. Also implies a full taking of breath or alternation of choir.
6. ③ → This is called the (Horizontal Episema) it delays the note on which it appears, it is like the 'ritardando' in modern music.
