 I come to Thee once more, my Lord, No long - er will I roam; For Though bright and ma - ny are the spots, Where I have built a nest; Yet Ri - ches could bring me joy and pow'r, And they were fair to see; Yet
 For Thou hast made this wond' - rous soul, All for thy - self a - lone; Ah,

 I have sought the wide world through, And nev - er found a home.
 in the bright - est still I pined, For more a - bid - ing rest.
 gold was but a sor - ry god, To serve in - stead of Thee.
 send Thy sweet trans - form - ing grace, To make it more thine own.
