

ODIRAÁCHUKWUMMA

(if it pleases God...)

Chukwuebuka Gabriel
Ezeakacha (laQuaver)

BACKGROUND

"Odiraá Chukwu Mma" is a statement of attestation to ultimately surrendering to God's will. Often used as a name by the igbo people of Nigeria, it literally translates most fittingly to the following phrase; "...if it pleases God". Most appropriately, it is part of a complete statement of faith - Whatever may come to pass... "I accept it, if it pleases God" (o di m mma m'odiraá Chukwu mma). The text was set to music for the purpose of praise and thanksgiving to God for the many gifts and blessings of life, given freely without charge. This song is hereby dedicated to my son, my first fruit, my blessing from God - Odiraáchukwumma George Ezeakacha.
