

O THOMAS, SHINING SPLENDOR BRIGHT. (LM)

1. O Thomas, shining splendor bright,
The ray of Mother Church's light;
We sing your merits, rich with grace,
As in your care our praise we place.
2. With simple heart and simple mind
You spread abroad for all mankind
The vision blest of God alone,
Beyond what was to others known.
3. You gazed on myst'ries, great and deep;
With logic sharp, their truth you reap:
And then, this food to ages gave,
Their minds to fill, their souls to save.
4. Your mind was set to hear the voice
Of God's inspired Spirit's choice:
To write with shining words the praise
Of Christ and truth, for endless days.
5. In silence raptur'd, modest, pure,
God's sacred fellowship made sure
Your teaching, like the mid-day sun
O'er masters old its course to run.
6. We seek the goal the saints now see,
The Three in One and One in Three:
And grant that these new songs we sing
From age to age anew may ring.

1. Adóro te devóte, latens Déitas,
Quæ sub his figúris, vere látitas:
Tibi se cor meum, totum súbjicit
Quia te contémpans totum déficit.

*I devoutly adore you, O hidden Deity,
Truly hidden beneath these appearances.
My whole heart submits to you,
And in contemplating you,
it surrenders itself completely.*

2. Visus, tactus, gustus in te fállitur,
Sed audítur solo tuto creditur:
Credo quidquid dixit Dei Fílius:
Nil hoc verbo veritátis vérius.

*Sight, touch, taste are all deceived
In their judgment of you, but hearing suffices firmly to believe. I believe all that the Son of God has spoken; there is nothing truer than this word of truth.*

3. In cruce latébat sola Déitas,
At hic latet simul et humánitas:
Ambo tamen credens atque cónfitens,
Peto quod petívit latro pænitens.

*On the cross only the divinity was hidden,
But here the humanity is also hidden.
I believe and confess both,
And ask for what the repentant thief asked.*

4. Plagas, sicut Thomas, non intúeor
Deum tamen meum te confíteor:
Fac me tibi semper magis crédere,
In te spem habére, te díligere.

*I do not see the wounds like Thomas did,
But I confess that you are my God.
Make me believe more and more in you,
Hope in you, and love you.*

5. O memoriále mortis Dómini,
Panis vivus vítam præstans hómini,
Præsta meæ menti de te vívere,
Et te illi semper dulce sápere.

*O memorial of our Lord's death!
Living bread that gives life to man,
Grant my soul to live on you,
And always to savour your sweetness.*

6. Pie pellicáne Jesu Dómine,
Me immúndum munda tuo sánguine,
Cujus una stilla salvum fácere
Totum mundum quit ab omni scélere.

*Lord Jesus, good pelican,
Wash me clean with your blood,
One drop of which can free
the entire world of all its sins.*

7. Jesu, quem velátum nunc aspício,
Oro fiat illud quod tam sítio:
Ut te reveláta cernens fácie,
Visu sim beátus tuæ gloriæ. [Amen.]

*Jesus, whom now I see hidden,
I ask you to fulfill what I so desire:
That the sight of your face unveiled,
I may have the happiness of seeing your glory. Amen.*
