Ini Abasi Raphael Ekanem

Organ

The organ introduction consists of two staves in E-flat major (three flats). The right hand plays a series of chords and moving lines, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment. The piece concludes with a final sustained chord.

The vocal part is written for a single voice in E-flat major. It includes a four-part setting of the verse and a final organ accompaniment. The lyrics are as follows:

4. Though I walk through trou - bles, He's with me,

1. I will praise You Lord cried with all my heart, be -
 2. On the day I in the You ans - wered me and

Organ

The organ introduction is written for a 2/4 time signature with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). It consists of two staves. The right hand (treble clef) features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, creating a rhythmic melody. The left hand (bass clef) provides a steady accompaniment with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. The tempo is marked 'Vivace'.
