The first system of the musical score is for the first four measures of the hymn. It features a treble and bass staff in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: 'I come to Thee once more, my Lord, No long - er will I roam; For Though bright and ma - ny are the spots, Where I have built a nest; Yet Ri - ches could bring me joy and pow'r, And they were fair to see; Yet For Thou hast made this wond' - rous soul, All for thy - self a - lone; Ah,'. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with block chords and moving lines in both hands.

I come to Thee once more, my Lord, No long - er will I roam; For Though bright and ma - ny are the spots, Where I have built a nest; Yet
Ri - ches could bring me joy and pow'r, And they were fair to see; Yet
For Thou hast made this wond' - rous soul, All for thy - self a - lone; Ah,

The second system of the musical score continues the hymn from measure 5 to measure 8. The lyrics are: 'I have sought the wide world through, And nev - er found a home. in the bright - est still I pined, For more a - bid - ing rest. gold was but a sor - ry god, To serve in - stead of Thee. send Thy sweet trans - form - ing grace, To make it more thine own.' The musical notation continues with similar block chords and moving lines in both hands.

I have sought the wide world through, And nev - er found a home.
in the bright - est still I pined, For more a - bid - ing rest.
gold was but a sor - ry god, To serve in - stead of Thee.
send Thy sweet trans - form - ing grace, To make it more thine own.

I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "Come un - to me, and rest:
I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "Be - hold, i free - ly give I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "I am this dark worlds light;

lay down, thou wea - ry one, lay down thy head up - on my breast."
the li - ving wa - ter: thirs - ty one, stoop down and drink look un - to Me! thy morn shall rise, And all thy day and be bright."

I Came to Je - sus as i was wea - ry and worn, and sad;
I Came to Je - sus and i drank of that life giv - ing stream;
I looked to Je - sus and i found in Him my star, my Sun;

I found in him a rest - ing place, and he has made me glad.
My thirst was quenched, My soul re - vived, and now I live in Him.
And that light of life I'll walk, Till tra - vel - ling days are done.

May the angels lead you into paradise, may the martyrs come to receive you, and lead you into the holy city, Jerusalem.

May the choir of angels receive you, and where Lazarus is poor no longer, there may you have eternal rest.

*I am the resurrection and the life:
 whoever believes in me, even if he/she dies will live:
 and all who live and believe in me, will never die.*

These three antiphons for the burial of the dead may be found in the Graduale Triplex (Solesmes, 1979), in three forms of notation: traditional four-line staves with neums; together with sigla from Laon and St Gall manuscripts. Although traditionally only the first two antiphons tend to be sung (and set by other composers), the third (from the story of the Raising of Lazarus in John 11:25f) provides a fitting conclusion.

The music always moves along freely. Textual accents are always assumed to be on the penultimate syllable, unless indicated by an acute accent (e.g. há-be-as, sus-cí-pi-ant); other syllables are sung lightly. A smaller-sized note in the score (liquescent – e.g. sanc-tam, quon-dam, ae-ter-nam) acts as a passing note to the next note, and is “semi-vocalized”.

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in common time (C) and the key of E major (indicated by two sharps). The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains the first two verses of the hymn. The second system contains the third verse. The third system contains the 'Amen' refrain. The piano accompaniment consists of a right hand with a simple harmonic melody and a left hand with a more active, rhythmic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures. The 'Amen' refrain is repeated three times with increasing emphasis.

Where char - i - ty and love pre - vail, There God is ev - er found;
With grate - ful joy and ho - ly fear God's cha - ri - ty we learn;
For - give we now each oth - er's faults As we our faults con - fess;
Let strife a - mong us be un - known, Let all con - ten - tion cease;
Let us re - call that in our midst Dwells God's be - got - ten Son;
No race nor creed can love ex - clude, If hon - oured be God's name;
