land and the work of our hand, we come to your feast._____

2.
We place upon your table
A humble loaf of bread
The gift of field and hillside
The grain by which we're fed
We come to taste the presence
Of him on whom we feed
To strengthen and connect us
To challenge and correct us
To love in word and deed.

3.
We place upon your table
A simple cup of wine
The fruit of human labour
The gift of sun and vine
We come to taste the presence
Of him we claim as Lord
His dying and his living
His leading and his giving
His love in cup outpoured

4.
We place upon your table
The fruit from off our trees
Their sweet and juicy flavour
Their fragrance, quick to please
We see in all our plenty
The signs of being blessed
Our harvest is abundant
And nothing is redundant
Our joy is now complete.

5.
We place upon your table
Our calabash of wine
Tapped from our finest palm trees
On which your sun did shine
With it we bring our kola
With it we bring ourselves
Our spirits are uplifted
With love we have been gifted
We've found a new rebirth.

6.
We gather round your table
We pause within our quest
We stand beside our neighbour
We name the stranger "guest"
The feast is spread before us
You bid us come and dine
In blessing, we'll uncover
In sharing, we'll discover
Your substance and your sign.

NOTE TO CONDUCTOR/CHOIRMASTER :

Software glitches may have prevented the solfège from displaying appropriately in some areas. Please verify from the staff the correct note lengths in bars 17,19,21,22,25,27,29, 30,31,34,36,38,39,42,43,44,45,46,47 and 48. In these bars, there are punctuation errors in the solfège, but the accompanying staff are correct.
