Handwritten musical score for Handel's Judas Maccabaeus Part I, page 3. The score is in G minor (three flats) and 3/4 time. It consists of seven systems of piano accompaniment. The notation includes various dynamics (f, mp, p, cresc., rinfz., ff), articulation (accents, slurs), and a key signature change to E major in the third system. The piece features complex textures with rapid sixteenth-note passages in the right hand and steady eighth-note patterns in the left hand.

A piano introduction in D major, 3/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

DUET.—“Come, ever-smiling liberty”

The first system of the duet. The Soprano part begins with a mf dynamic, singing "Come, ev - er - smil - ing lib - er - ty, come,". The Alto part enters with a mf dynamic, singing "Come, ev - er - smil - ing lib - er - ty,". The piano accompaniment is marked mf and features a steady eighth-note bass line with chords in the right hand.

The second system of the duet. The Soprano part continues with "smil - ing lib - er - ty, And with thee bring thy joc-und train,". The Alto part continues with "smil - ing lib - er - ty, And with thee bring thy joc-und". The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note pattern, featuring some chordal textures in the right hand.

Handwritten musical score for Judas Maccabaeus Part III, page 170. The score consists of six systems of grand staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#). The music features various dynamics including cresc., ff, dim. mp, and ff with accents. There are also trills marked with tr and a rit. marking. The notation includes chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines with ornaments.

No 37. CHORUS.—“Sing unto God”

Allegro maestoso

The piano introduction consists of three systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a common time signature (C). It features a melody in the treble staff and a bass line in the bass staff. The first measure of the treble staff is marked with a star and the dynamic ff. The second system continues the melody and bass line. The third system concludes the introduction with a final chord in the treble staff and a sustained bass line.

(Chorus) Alto

The vocal entry for the Chorus is written for an Alto. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass staff. The first measure of the melody is marked with a star and the dynamic mp. The lyrics "Sing un - to God, and high af - fec-tions raise, To crown this conquest with" are written below the melody. The piano accompaniment begins with a melody in the bass staff and a sustained bass line.
